A sustainable choice for any floor maintenance task while achieving a stunning result every time.

Floor cleaning can be a laborious task and while machine cleaning can significantly reduce the time and energy involved and achieve superior results, it has traditionally come at a cost to the environment with consumable floor pads being made from virgin plastic and going straight to landfill once used.

Now floor machine cleaning can be guilt-free, with new CleanWorks ProEco Floor Pads, made from 100% Post-Consumer recycled PET fibre (UL validated). Black Stripping Pads, Green and Blue Scrubbing Pads, Red Buffing Pads, and White Polishing Pads are just a few of the choices available in our selection of cleaning floor pads to meet various cleaning requirements.

The innovative CleanWorks® ProEco Floor Pads provide a sustainable choice for any floor maintenance task and have a number of exceptional features that set them apart.

Each pad is created to carry out a particular cleaning task with the greatest efficiency and effectiveness possible, delivering the best results with the least amount of time and effort needed to accomplish the task.

Treated with an antimicrobial agent to help stop the development of dangerous bacteria, fungi, and other microorganisms. This feature is crucial for maintaining a clean and safe working environment in commercial settings where sanitation and hygiene are of the utmost importance.

Extremely durable and resistant to degradation, ensuring a longer lifespan and greater value. Longer-lasting floor pads need to be replaced less often, contributing to less waste in landfills.

CleanWorks ProEco floor pads are made entirely out of recycled PET material, making them an environmentally-friendly choice that promotes sustainability and waste reduction.

DID YOU KNOW?

Up to 32 x 500ml water bottles are recycled to make one floor pad. This is making use of bottles that could otherwise end up in landfill, whilst reducing demand for virgin plastic to be made.
